

Willauer, Timothy J. (Brillo) – Nov. 22, 1952 – Feb. 18, 2006

Timothy John "Brillo" Willauer passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, Feb. 18, 2006, after a brief illness. Tim was born Nov. 22, 1952, and spent his childhood in Madison. After years on the road and searching to find himself, he arrived in San Antonio and realized that this was to be his home for more than 30 years. He maintained his childhood friendships as he established a network of wonderful caring and loving friends throughout all of San Antonio. He will be missed deeply by Jeff Whitman and Chris Garver. Some of Tim's many loves were his son, his wife, wood working, shooting pool, darts, softball, cooking and grilling with his home grown herbs. He was the family historian and storyteller; his humor and smile touched many lives and could light up a room. Tim was preceded in death by his father, Edward (Jeff) B. Willauer, Sr., in 2001. Tim is survived by his loving wife, Tina; son, Colin; stepson, Joseph Marckstein; mother, Joan; brothers and sisters, Eddie, Rusty, Linda, Ricky, Susie, Mary, Tommy; and their family members, nieces, nephews and cousins. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be sent in Tim's name to St. Jude's Children's Hospital at 332 N. Lauderdale, Memphis, TN 38105.
